Mr. Lockwood's activity did not cease with his attempt to secure possession of the Von Hoffman. He visited the undertaking rooms in the afternoon to give directions about the funeral. He said that Mrs. Todd had always wanted to have her body cremated, and he therefore wished that disposition made of it. He was asked if he was the executor of the will, and he said that he was not. He said he had drawn Mrs. Todd's will and that Mrs. Tousey was to be the executor. The Merritt people said that they could not recognize him in such a case and they waited for instructions from the family.

Then Sinclair Tousey, who is a brother of the late Frank Tousey, came into the case on behalf of his sister-in-law. He gave directions as to what should be done with the body and made the funeral arrangements and he was recognized by the indertakers. It was decided not to cremate the body until after the arrival of Mrs. Tousey, and that meanwhile, after funeral services at the Merritt esta funeral services at the Merritt establishment on Monday at noon, the body should lie in the receiving vauft at Woodlawn Cemetery, where Mrs. Todd had a burial

No fresh light was thrown yesterday on the manner of Mrs. Todd's death. Miss Knight, who went with her to Jersey City and put her on a Royal Blue Line train, having purchased her ticket and a Pullman ticket as well, came to the Hotel Von Hoffman yesterday in a state of agitation and told Manager Emory what she knew. She said she had known Mrs. Todd a long time and had come to call just as Mrs. Todd was setting out ostensibly to go to East Orange. On the way down to the West Twenty-third street ferry Mrs. Todd said she had changed her mind and intended to go to Philadelphia. Miss Knight put the old lady on the train and that was the last she saw of her.

CLOSED OR OPEN SHOP? Why the Little Strike of Truck Drivers Is

Watched With Keen Interest. The strike of the truck drivers against

Thomas Orr, a member of the New York Team Owners' Association, for the closed shop is being watched by merchants and manufacturers' associations, not only here, but in other cities. The interest taken by the employers' associations here in a strike of twenty truck drivers is justified, they say, by what might happen if the union won. It would be the beginning of the closed shop in the trade, even if no general strike was declared, as a victory in this case would stimulate the union to barass other employers one or two at a time and keep up a condition of uncertainty which might last many months.

It was learned last evening that employers' associations throughout the country are willing to aid Thomas Orr in any way possible, and in some of the cities "open shop" organizations of employers are being The resolutions passed by arranged for.
